NOTICE

The photographs on these pages are presented in an effort to assist the photographer, artist or model. They are designed to capture the fixed lighting, lines, contour and defined shadows in order to assist the artist in making authentic reproductions and to aid the model in the learning of new and varied poses.

Our primary purpose is to inspire both the professional and serious amateur by offering them the finest photographic techniques available.

All rights are reserved and none of the contents of these pages may be reproduced in any way without the written permission of the publishers.
